The Sunday of the Samaritan Woman

The Fifth Sunday of Pascha is always dedicated to recalling the conversation between Christ Our Savior and the Samaritan Woman. Last Sunday the meaning of Christ's Resurrection for humanity was presented to us and we realized that the Resurrection has brought us wholeness. Whereas before we came to know the Lord as our Risen King we could only lie or crawl about and wait for an Angel to help us, now we can get up and walk and show forth the works of the Lord. Today we find that the Risen Christ gives us the Holy Spirit, as an inexhaustible spring of living water, refreshing us and all around us with joy, hope and courage to work for the Lord.

The Samaritan woman through whom the Lord revealed the Good News is known in the Church as Photina (or Svitlana in Ukrainian). The name signifies "woman of the Light". And indeed so she became following her enlightenment by Christ. The Church relates that she later came to live and proclaim the Gospel of Christ in Carthage and Smyrna.

It was when she came to get water at the well in Samaria (at 12:00 noon in the heat of the day to escape the gossip and cruel remarks of the other women who would come early in the morning) that she met Christ the Teacher. Our Lord changed her life by opening for her the gates of Paradise. By speaking to her Jesus showed that He was indeed the Messiah. With great authority He set aside the prohibition to speak with a woman in public as well as the antipathy to Samaritans which made the inhabitants of Israel at the time take detours rather than pass through their territory. His invitation to worship God "in spirit and in truth" rings out throughout the ages. No more hypocritical superficial fulfillment of rituals and commandments. Instead He calls for humility, truthfulness and the sort of faith that respects and is kind to others.

The martyred Fr. Alexander Men notes something further in this conversation of the Lord with Photina, the Samaritan woman. He says: "Christ returned to women that human dignity which had been taken from them, as well as the right to have spiritual needs. Henceforth, their place was not only in the family circle."

The question that St. Photina offered to her neighbors, of whom she was no longer frightened after her meeting with the Lord, is one to which we must all respond: "Could this be the Christ?" Our response must be a joyous and sincere one: "He is indeed!" Holy Mother Photina, pray to God for us! Amen.

Today: Sunday of the Samaritan Woman

On this Fifth Sunday of Pascha we commemorate the encounter of Our Lord with the Samaritan Woman at Jacob's well, near Sichem. Knowing Scripture....

An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening of religious service when she was startled by an intruder.

As she caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables, she yelled, “Stop - Acts 2:38!” (...turn from your sin...)

The burglar stopped dead in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done.

As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, “Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you.”

“Scripture?” replied the burglar, “She said she had an AXE and two 38’s!”

If you forgive anyone, I also forgive him. And what I have forgiven—if there was anything to forgive—I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.
