

ST. GEORGE'S DIVINE SERVICES

Saturday, June 1

Our Holy Father Nicephorus the Confessor

Readings: Rom. 2:10-16; Mt. 4:18-23

5:00 P. M. No Great Vespers (North Side)

Sunday, June 2

Second Sunday after Pentecost

Readings: Rom. 2:10-16; Mt. 4:18-23

9:10 A.M. Third Hour;

9:30 A.M. Divine Liturgy

Health and salvation of Andrew, Lyudmyla, Joe, Stanislava, Mykola (By Galyna Sibruk)

Supplications will be offered for+ Michael and Anna Chersnowsky.,

given by Magdalena Cheresnowsky.

Tuesday, June 4

St. Metrophanes, Patrirch

Readings: Rom. 7:14-8:2; Mt. 10:9-15

9:00 A.M. Divine Liturgy

Repose of Anthony Fedyna (By Elsie Miloic)

Repose of Stefan, Maria, Stefan, Joseph Lorinc (By Michael Lorinc)

Saturday, June 8

Our Holy Father Cyril, Archbishop of Alexadria

Readings: Rom. 5:1-10; Mt. 6:22-34

5:00 P. M. NO Great Vespers

6:30 P.M. Vigil Divine Liturgy (McKees Rocks)

Sunday, June 9

Third Sunday after Pentecost

Readings: Rom. 5:1-10; Mt. 6:22-34

9:10 A.M. Third Hour;

9:30 A.M. Divine Liturgy

Health and wellbeing on Sister Olga Maria Faryna in ocassion of her Golden Jubilee as a Sister of saint Basil the Great

Supplications will be offered for+ Joseph Romah Jr., given by Mike and Vicky Senko.

Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee and called out to some fishermen there. What did He say?

Follow the arrows from letter to letter.

“C _____ ,
 _____ ↑ ↗ ↑
 _____ ↙ ↑ ↑ → → ↘
 _____ ↗ ← ↙ ↓ →
 _____ ↗ ↓ ↓ ↙ ↘
 _____ ↑ ↗ ← ←
 _____ ↓ ↓ ←
 _____ ↓ → → ↗ ↗ ↓ ↓
 _____ ↓ ↗
 _____ ↓ ← ← N.”

It is Summer Time!!!

Summer is here and I'm sure we're all thinking about vacations, relaxing, lots of sunshine (very important for us in Pittsburgh), a slower lifestyle, ball games, visits to the zoo and amusement parks, short trips to places of interest, working around the house, gardening, summer sports leagues, and more...

It seems to me that regardless of the time of year, we all have much for which to thank God, and as His creations, therefore we need to worship our Creator. As you begin to fill the calendar with activities, try not to let Sunday Divine Worship fall by the wayside! For all of us summer should be less stressful which should, in turn, enhance our participation in the Divine Liturgy.

What we see happening in our parishes is that summer means for some "a vacation from God". This is a strange concept for me, which you would probably expect me to say, given my priestly ministry in the Church. I like to think of my summer vacations as an adventure, and visiting different Ukrainian Catholic or Eastern Catholic Churches can be part of this adventure. The different types of architecture, icons, music, vestments, etc. still point to a Church with the same beliefs. Our Divine Worship is timeless, regardless of the time zone, continent, or jurisdiction in which it is offered. When you plan to travel remember to visit the following websites: www.byzcath.org/index.php/find-a-parish-mainmenu-111, or www.parishesonline.com; to find lists of all parishes, regardless of jurisdiction. If you are having trouble finding a parish, just check with the parish office for the Ukrainian Catholic or Eastern Catholic Church nearest your vacation site.

Finally, here is a prayer that you can offer before you begin your travels and remember to bring me a parish bulletin from any Church you visit.

Lord Jesus Christ my God, be my Companion, guide and protector during my journey. Keep me from all danger, misfortune and temptation. By Your divine power grant me a peaceful and successful journey and safe arrival. In You I place my hope and trust and You I praise, honor and glorify, together with Your

·CALL OF THE FIRST DISCIPLES·

June 2, 2013

Second after Pentecost

Our Holy Father Nicephorus, the Confessor

Changeable Parts:

Pages

*In the Booklet of Changeable
Parts (Small white book)*

Announcements:

Today: Church School

This Sunday is the last class for our St. George's children. At the end of the Divine Liturgy we will have a special prayer and blessing for all the children as they begin their summer vacation. Sincere thanks to our teachers: Mrs. Rose Ann Kulczycki, Ms. Olga Perkun and Mr. Andy Salo and Deacon Andriy Kelt for preparing classes and teaching our children. Now that we come to the conclusion of this school year I ask all parents to think about ideas for events that we can organize together during the summer months for our children.

Our Sympathy

Our parish family wishes to express our prayers and deepest sympathy to the family and friends of +Anna Geiger who was buried from our Holy Church on Wednesday, May 22nd. May the Lord commit her soul to the place where she just repose and may her memory be eternal! Вічна Память!

Father's Day

As part of our Father's Day celebration we will be honoring our Fathers by lighting remembrance candles in honor of them. These candles will be lit the weekend of June 16th, and will burn in front of the mosaic icon of Christ the Teacher (right side of the Church). Please use the form in today's bulletin to order your candles and place it in the collection basket. Please print each name and mark the correct box next to each name, whether living or deceased.

Collection- May God bless you...

The total for Sunday of May 26, 2013 was $1575.00
(Collection: $1124.00, Loose & other: $60.00, Pyrohy: $391.00)

Sincere thanks to all for your kindness and generosity to our Holy Church!

FATHER'S DAY

Please light a candle in honor/memory of the following

_____	Living	Deceased
_____	Living	Deceased
_____	Living	Deceased

Given By:

Please print each name and circle the correct notation. Red candles will be used for the deceased, White for the Living. Donation for each candle is $3.00.

 DEADLINE TO ORDER THESE CANDLES: THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 2013

Second Sunday after Pentecost

Jesus said to them: "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." They immediately left their nets and followed Him.

Mt. 4:19-20

On this Second Sunday of Pentecost we listen carefully to the Gospel reading from the holy apostle and evangelist Matthew (4:18-23) in which we witness the calling of the first apostles: Andrew, Simon-Peter, James and John.

There is a story about a little bird lying on its back in a field, its legs stretched up to the sky. Another bird saw this and landed next to it. "Little brother," he said, "What are you doing?" "Hush," the bird on its back said, "Don't disturb me. It might be fatal for all of us!" "What are you doing?" "Don't you understand," the bird answered, "I am carrying the sky. If I turn around, it will crash all over us." At that moment a gust of wind blew through a nearby tree. A branch fell off with a big crack and landed just behind the bird on its back. The frightened bird turned around and flew off. The sky remained in its place! In many cases we act as if we are carrying the whole world on our shoulders. We shouldn't. It will wear us out in no time.

Our Lord did not want to be left all by Himself when he started His ministry among us. One of the first things He did was to find some company. He needed comfort and support in his human nature. He had company around Him up to the last moment of His earthly life. In the garden of Gethsemane He pleaded with the disciples to remain with Him and not to fall asleep. From the cross, He was comforted by the compassion of the murderer on His side and by the presence of His mother Mary and the beloved disciple John.

He advised us not to remain alone on our way. He tells us to come to Him to ease our burden. If we all go to Him, we also come together to carry the weight of our task in this world side by side. Only in that way will we be able to work in the direction of the realization of God's vision for us, a peaceful and just world, the reign of God.

Remember the words of Our Savior: "I shall be with you all days." It is in Jesus' continuing presence that we find the courage to follow Him. Are we making the daily effort to realize that presence with us?