The man who had asked the first question answered,

The Holy Apostle and Evangelist Matthew
November 16

As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him: "Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.

The holy apostle and evangelist Matthew was originally called Levi. He was the son of Alphaeus and was by profession a publican, or tax-collector, at Capernaum. On one occasion Jesus, coming up from the side of the lake, passed the custom-house where Matthew was seated and said to him, "Follow me." Matthew arose and followed Christ, becoming his disciple (Matthew 9:9). He changed his name to reflect his new calling. "Matthew" means "Gift of the Lord."

The same day on which Christ called him he made a "great feast" (Luke 5:29), a farewell feast, to which he invited Jesus and his disciples and probably also many of his old associates. The last notice of him in the New Testament is in Acts 1:13.

After the resurrection of our Lord, the apostle Matthew went and preached amongst the Jews. His Gospel was probably first written in Aramaic and later translated into Greek. Eventually Matthew went to Ethiopia to spread the Gospel. There he was martyred by Fulvian, the ruler of the region, by being set on fire. After Matthew willingly gave up his soul to the Lord, his body was put in a coffin and cast into the sea. It washed up at the site of the Church he had built. Fulvian, Matthew's persecutor, immediately repented of his deed, renounced his position of worldly power, and was made a presbyter by the Bishop Platon. Once Platon died, the apostle appeared to the priest Fulvian (who had taken the name Matthew as well) and told him to assume the bishop's throne. Having become a bishop, St Fulvian-Matthew toiled at preaching the Word of God, continuing the work of his heavenly patron.

O Holy Apostle and Evangelist Matthew, intercede to our merciful God, that He may grant our souls forgiveness of sins!

Glory to Jesus Christ!

My dear parishioners,

I would like to personally thank all of you who have spent countless hours and volunteer time helping to organize our Ukrainian Food Festival. I have seen the cooperation of so many of our parishioners who spent many days of dedication by cooking, baking, and preparing the hall. Sincere thanks to all who participated in our Ukrainian Food Festival. The buffet line was a great hit and everyone enjoyed our delicious ethnic food, baked goods and pysanky display.

Most of all I especially would like to thank people who worked in the kitchen and servers who were seeing to the needs of the guests. They worked really hard during the festival. As I close, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your generosity, hard work and love for Saint George Ukrainian Catholic Parish.

Sincerely,
Father Ihor, Pastor

Philip's Fast-Advent

As a parish family we will begin the pre-Nativity Fast (Pylypivka) on Thursday, November 15th. This Fast lasts until the eve of the Nativity of Christ (December 24) inclusively. The regulations for this Fast are far more lenient than for the Great Fast. During this time we are to observe Wednesdays and Fridays as a day of "Simple Fast", that is, no meat is to be eaten. As it has been a tradition in the past, we will celebrate one evening during the week the beautiful Moleben to Emmanuel, which is a special Prayer Service in preparation for the Nativity of Our Lord. I encourage you to come and dedicate an evening during this Philip's Fast-Advent to attend this beautiful Prayer Service. The first one will be celebrated at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, November 16th. Please come!
