After 40 days without eating, Jesus was hungry! He knew that He could use His power and turn stones into bread. But He also knew that He should only use His power to help others. Jesus made the right choice!

Prayer of Protection from the Coronavirus

O God Almighty, Lord of heaven and earth, and of all creation visible and invisible, in Your ineffable goodness, look down upon Your people gathered in Your Name. Be our helper and defender in this day of affliction. You know our weakness. You hear our cry in repentance and contrition of heart.

O Lord Who loves mankind deliver us from the impending threat of the coronavirus. Sent Your Angel to watch over us and protect us. Grant health and recovery to those suffering from this virus. Guide the hands of physicians, and preserve those who are healthy that we may continue to serve You in peace and glorify Your Most Honorable and Majestic Name, of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen

First Sunday after Pentecost. All Saints Sunday, Tone 8

Changeable Part: Page 28
In the Booklet of Changeable Parts (Small white book)

Announcements:

Today: Sunday of All Saints

The Sunday after Pentecost is dedicated in our Holy Church to the remembrance of all those that have gone before us, who have fulfilled God's plan for humanity here on earth, who took up that call from God to join Him, and the many who suffered greatly and died for their faith. It is on these days that we not only commemorate those saints who are well known to us, but we also commemorate those whose names we don't know.

Father's Day

As part of our Father's Day celebration we will be honoring our Fathers by lighting remembrance candles in honor of them. These candles will be lit the weekend of June 20th, and will burn in front of the mosaic icon of Christ the Teacher (right side of the Church). Please use the form in today's bulletin to order your candles and place it in the collection basket. Please print each name and mark the correct box next to each name, whether living or departed.

Resumption of public services in our parishes:

As Allegheny County enters the yellow phase, public Divine Worship are reopen at St. George’s and St. John’s. Please read the guidelines from the Chancery Office of our Eparchy /Diocese: <https://stjosaphateparchy.com/guidelines-for-parishes-upon-resumption-of-public-services/>

Please notice that dispensation from Sunday Liturgies remains valid until further notice. Also be aware that if you are not ready to receive the Holy Communion you should receive a spiritual communion instead.

Apostles Fast

On Monday, June 8th, we begin in our Liturgical calendar the Apostles Fast also called “Petrivka”, during which the Holy Church prepares the faithful with prayer and fasting for the feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul whose memory we celebrate on June 29th. This fast concludes on Friday, June 28th. According to the Pastoral Guide of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in the U.S.A. simple abstinence (from meat) is observed on Friday’s during this fasting period. Even though this fasting period in honor of the Apostles has been forgotten in our Holy Church let us do our best in observing our spiritual patrimony.

Estina Franzak Education Board Meeting

On this Thursday, June 18th, starting at 7:00 p.m., the St. George’s Education Board meeting will take place in the church hall. I ask all members to please be present for this important annual meeting. Thank you!

The Ukrainian Technological Society (UTS) scholarship application season runs from April 15 through July 6. Our territory is the entire tri-state area. Students, please apply ASAP, since your high school or college transcript (including spring semester 2019) is a HUGE part of the application process, and often high schools and universities take up to three weeks to send transcripts. For more information: utsphg.org

Sincere thanks to all for your kindness and generosity to our Holy Church!

Second Sunday after Pentecost

Today’s Gospel reading tells us about the call by Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, as He begins His public ministry. Saint Matthew describes quite simply the circumstances and personalities involved (Matt. 4:18-22). Jesus chose His disciples from among plain and ordinary folk, common fishermen, telling them that in the future they would become fishers of men. He molded and instructed them carefully because His teaching and mission were not destined to end with Himself. It would be the task of His twelve apostles to continue His teaching and mission. He gave them power over the Kingdom of God and eternal life; they were enabled to bind and loose everything connected with the service of man’s eternal destiny; they were to receive the Holy Spirit and the power to forgive sins or to retain them (John 20:21-23). And when, at the Mystical Supper, He prefigured His sacrifice of the Cross under the symbols of bread and wine, He said to them, “Do this in memory of Me” (Luke 22:19). He gave them the order to baptize and to teach all nations. As His Father had sent Him, so He in turn sent them; He handed on to them His mission (Matt. 28:19-20).

As we read in Holy Scripture Our Lord chose people not of great scholarship, influence, wealth or social background, but simple working people devoted to their task in life. They probably were not poor but undoubtedly had little to give after taking care of their own needs.

Once there came to Socrates a very ordinary man called Aeschines. “I am a humble soul,” said Aeschines. “I have nothing to give, but I give myself.” “Don’t you see,” said Socrates, “that you are giving me the most precious thing of all?”

Remember on this Sunday that Our Lord, too, needs ordinary folk who will give of themselves. The call of the first four disciples in today’s Gospel invites us to renew our response to discipleship in accordance with our present state of life. The challenge is raised to follow Christ, to live and spread His message, leading others to Him in accordance with the divine plan, “It is My Father’s will that whoever sees the Son and believes in Him shall have eternal life” (John 6:40) Amen.
