Who is the Bishop Martyr Nicholas (Charnetsky)?

As a parish family we are truly blessed to have the relics of one of the new martyrs of the Ukrainian Catholic Church: The Holy Hieromartyr Nicholas. On June 27, 2001, the Servant of God Pope John Paul II beatified 27 martyrs for the Ukrainian Catholic Church. Amongst them was a pious elderly Bishop Nicholas. He was born on September 14, 1884 in the village of Semakivtsi in the Horodenko district of Ukraine. After his seminary studies and formation to the priesthood he was ordained a priest of the Ukrainian Catholic Church on October 2, 1909. As a priest he continued his studies in Rome after which he obtained a Doctorate in Sacred Theology.

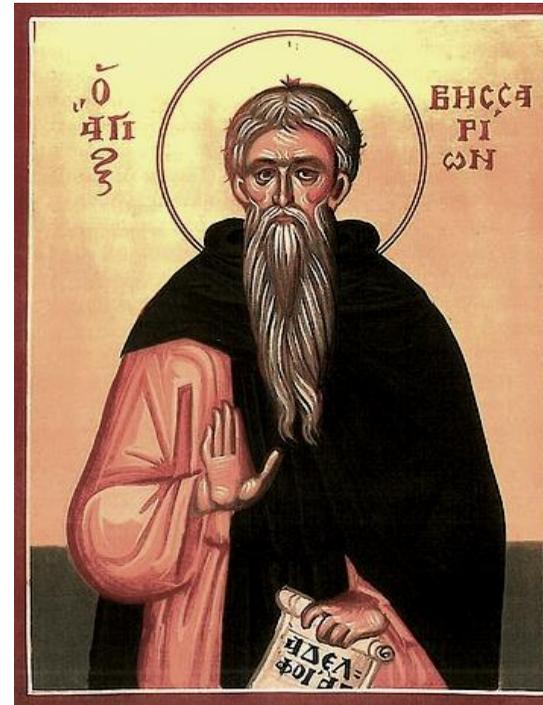

Following that he returned to Ukraine and became spiritual director and professor at the Eparchial Seminary in Stanislaviv (Ivano-Frankivsk).

In 1919, he entered the novitiate for the Redemptorists fathers. In 1926 he began working as a missionary father in the regions of Volyn and Podilssia in Ukraine. In 1931 he was consecrated Bishop by the Servant of God Metropolitan Andrew (Sheptytsky) and was appointed the Apostolic Visitor for the Ukrainian Catholics of that region. On April 11, 1945 he was arrested by the NKVD (KGB) and sentenced to eleven years of forced labor in Siberia. He returned to Lviv in 1956 weak in health. He continued his pastoral ministry in clandestine conditions ordaining secretly new priests, celebrating the Divine Mysteries for all the faithful. He died as a martyr for the Holy Faith on April 2, 1959. The Holy Relics of this Holy Bishop were entombed in our Holy Altar during our 90st Anniversary celebration in 2008.

Third Sunday after Pentecost

"Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through Our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:1)

What does Saint Paul the Apostle mean by "we have peace"? He is speaking about behavior and everyday living. He spoke before about faith and the impossibility of salvation without it. Through good works, he is telling us how to behave now - how to show our life with the faith. "Peace with God" means not to go back and commit sin, not to go back to the old life of just pleasing the body without pleasing God.

But how can we not return to sin? Saint Paul is saying "we have been liberated through Christ from our sins, and also through Him we can keep away from sin. To gain peace with God is one thing, but to keep it is another."

According to Saint Gregory Palamas there are three types of peace: 1. Peace towards ourselves. 2. Peace towards our neighbors. 3. Peace towards God.

Another saint says: "Peace is a liberation from our desires. It cannot be achieved except through the Holy Spirit." Christ has done the difficult thing. He has brought us the peace with God. But it is up to us to keep it. We were away from Him, now we are close to Him.

Saint Paul in his letter goes on to promise us much more, which people normally do not like to talk about. He said "and that is not all we rejoice about. We can rejoice about our sufferings". We rejoice not only in our faith, but also in our sufferings. These sufferings can lead us to inner beauty. Even though sufferings can seem heavy, they can bring happiness and peace, if we have the right attitude. This right attitude is born in us through LOVE. According to the Church fathers, it is God's love which unites us to God: The love which He loved us with. The love which He showed for us when His Son Jesus died for us; did so while we were still sinners; reconciled us to our Creator; and saved us, making us His children and His heirs to His kingdom of eternity. It is our job to accept His love in our hearts, to commune with His love, and to radiate His love in all we do all our life. On this Sunday we pray that God's Peace, and His Love, be with us always. Amen.
