Jesus spoke with the Samaritan woman. She came to believe in Him. Jesus' disciples returned with food that they had just bought. What did Jesus say?

Solve the math problems to create the letter code.
Then use the code to find Jesus' reply.

Sunday of the Samaritan Woman

Not only did our Lord Jesus Christ teach large crowds - for example, at the Sermon on the Mount - but he also spent time with individuals, in one-on-one situations. The Gospel for this Sunday, the account of the Woman at the Well, the Samaritan Woman, is one example of this, and a very interesting one it is.

Our Lord knows what is in everyone's heart, He knew what was in the Samaritan woman's heart, and He also knows our own hearts and our weaknesses. He knows us well and can help us, only we must not fall prey to despondency. Tradition holds it that the Samaritan woman, who was called Photina, was persecuted during Nero's reign in approximately 66 A.D. for spreading Christianity, and died a martyr's death by being thrown into a well. Despite leading a sinful life, the Samaritan Photina had a sincere desire to know the true faith, and the Lord did not overlook her desire. In other words, she was not lukewarm in faith as is, unfortunately, the overwhelming majority of contemporary mankind. The Lord accepted the sinful Samaritan woman, but did not approve of the scribes and the Pharisees, despite the fact that outwardly their life may have appeared more righteous.

Today's Gospel reading teaches us to approach all spiritual issues in our life from within: to pay scant attention to externals, for the internal has more value than the external. And whenever we are faced with the question of whether we are acting correctly in such-and-such a case, we should look upon it from within the heart: if the answer is "yes" – then thanks be to God, and if the answer is "no" – then we must try to change ourselves.

Many of our friends ask how they may help.
