(Small white book)*

Glory to Jesus Christ!

We continue to celebrate the Pentecost, and, on this Sunday, we lift up our hearts in prayer for the wonderful boy, Blaise Fontana who is celebrating his First Reconciliation today. This child has reached what is called "the age of discretion," that is, Children know the difference between right and wrong, and are able to take responsibility for their actions. During this academic year they have undergone special instructions and preparations to take on that responsibility for their actions and their relationship with Christ through the Mystery of Confession.

We thank the parents of Blaise , Don and Erin and our Religious Education Instructor, Mrs. Motria Hodowanets for teaching and preparing for this special day in his live. As a parish family let us rejoice as we celebrate the First Reconciliation of Blaise. Let us offer a prayer on this Sunday for all of our children that participate actively in the life of St. George's.

*Very Rev. Igor D. Hohosha, Archpriest
Pastor*

Apostles Fast

On Monday, June 5th, we begin in our Liturgical calendar the Apostles Fast also called "Petrivka", during which our Holy Church prepares the faithful with prayer and fasting for the Feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul whose memory we celebrate on June 29th. This Fast concludes on June 28th. According to the Pastoral Guide of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in the U.S.A. simple abstinence (from meat) is to be observed on Fridays during this fasting period.

Marriage Banns

Yulian Lutsiv, of St. George Ukrainian Catholic Church, Pittsburgh, PA, and Sara Mitrovich, of Serbian Orthodox Church, desire to receive the Mystery of Crowning at St. George Ukrainian Catholic Church, Pittsburgh, PA. If anyone knows of any reason why this couple should not be joined in Holy Matrimony, they are bound in conscience to make the reason known to the parish priest or to the Promoter of Justice of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of St. Josaphat.

The Ukrainian Technological Society (UTS) scholarship application season runs from April 15 through July 6. Our territory is the entire tri-state area. The Sunday of All Saints

As each of us, young and older alike, is unique in our character, so too are the Saints of the Church. Amongst the multitude of Saints whom we call to mind today, we remember scholars, physicians, priests, monastics, hymnographers, iconographers, cooks, gardeners, architects, rulers, parents, and children. The list goes on and on. Yet, even as unique as their stewardship may have been, their commonality that led them to sainthood was their selfless commitment to Christ and His Church.

The commemoration of Saints is one of the most beautiful aspects of our tradition. We look to them as examples, we pray to them for their intercessions, and we gather with them during Divine Services to worship God. In fact, even when it appears that our pews are far from full, the Church is still bursting at the seams on account of the Saints that gather with us to praise and glorify God (please note: this shouldn't be used as an excuse not to attend Divine Services. The Saints are always willing to make room).

Each of us possesses the Grace of God and the ability to live a saintly life. The diversity of the Saints and their experiences attests to this. The question that we must ask ourselves though is whether we will choose to offer our stewardship to His Church and His Creation. The limitation that exists in our stewardship, whether we are young or older, is that which we create. Sure, you may say that each of us does not have unlimited resources of time, treasure and talent, but I would say that this attitude is what separates us from the Saints. The Saints offered themselves in their entirety to Christ.

Today, as we call to mind all those who have been glorified-canonized as Saints of our Holy Church, we call to mind their selfless stewardship to Christ. As we "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" we must likewise call to mind our stewardship to His Church and ask ourselves, "have we committed ourselves in our entirety to Christ?" Don't misinterpret this as a simple reminder of stewardship. This is Church's eternal call to sainthood and salvation. Will you respond? The answer is to be YES! Let us celebrate with songs of praise the deeds of all the Saints over all the earth, honouring them, as it is fitting: the Apostles and Martyrs, the Bishops and Holy Women. While living on earth, they joined with the heavenly spirits, and by the grace of Christ, they received immortality through their sufferings. They shine as bright stars for us, and now they intercede for our souls. (Stichera from Vespers)
