A story for Father's Day...

I'll Always be There for You!

It's a fascinating story that comes out of the 1989 earthquake which almost flattened Armenia. This deadly tremor killed over 30,000 people in less than four minutes. In the midst of all the confusion of the earthquake, a father rushed to his son's school. When he arrived there he discovered the building was flat as a pancake.

Standing there looking at what was left of the school, the father remembered a promise he made to his son, "No matter what, I'll always be there for you!" Tears began to fill his eyes. It looked like a hopeless situation, but he could not take his mind off his promise.

Remembering that his son's classroom was in the back right corner of the building, the father rushed there and started digging through the rubble. As he was digging other grieving parents arrived, clutching their hearts, saying: "My son! My daughter!" They tried to pull him off of what was left of the school saying: "It's too late!" "They're dead!" "You can't help!" "Go home!" Even a police officer and a fire-fighter told him he should go home. To everyone who tried to stop him he said, "Are you going to help me now?" They did not answer him and he continued digging for his son stone by stone.

He needed to know for himself: "Is my boy alive or is he dead?" This man dug for eight hours and then twelve and then twenty-four and then thirty-six. Finally in the thirty-eighth hour, as he pulled back a boulder, he heard his son's voice. He screamed his son's name, "ARMAND!" and a voice answered him, "Dad?" It's me Dad!" Then the boy added these priceless words, "I told the other kids not to worry. I told them that if you were alive, you'd save me and when you saved me, they'd be saved. You promised that, Dad. 'No matter what,' you said, 'I'll always be there for you!' And here you are Dad. You kept your promise!"

Jack Canfield and Mark Victor Hansen, "Chicken Soup for the Soul."

"It is easier for a father to have children than for children to have a real father."

Welcome Your Grace Bishop Bohdan!

It is with joy that we welcome in our midst our Eparchial Bishop His Grace, Bishop Bohdan. As a parish family we offer our prayers for his health and strength to continue His Hierarchical ministry to the faithful of our Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of St. Josaphat: Eis polla Eti Despota! Многая Літа Владико!

As we come together to celebrate the 100 years of service to Christ's Holy Church we warmly welcome the clergy and faithful who are here with us to offer thanksgiving to Almighty God in the Divine Liturgy. As a community of faithful let us be glad and rejoice as we come together to reflect the past, meditate the present, and focus on the future as parishioners, faithful of St. George.

Bimaemo Tamka!
Happy and Blessed Father's Day!

Most gracious Heavenly Father,

We thank You for our earthly fathers, those to whom You have entrusted the responsibility to provide loving protection of their families and guidance of their children. We thank You, also, for our priests and bishops, whose spiritual fatherhood is so vital to the faith of Your people.

Assist all fathers of families, all spiritual fathers, and all Christian men, that through Your Grace they may steadily grow in holiness and in knowledge and understanding of Your Truth. May they generously impart this knowledge to those who rely on them.

We ask your blessing on all those to whom you have entrusted fatherhood. May your Holy Spirit constantly inspire them with justice and mercy, wisdom and strength, fidelity and self-giving love. May they receive your Grace abundantly in this earthly life, and may they look forward to eternal joy in Your presence in the life to come. Amen.
