House Blessing

The house being cleaned and ready, we dress in an honorable manner (as we would for Church). When the priest arrives, we greet him at the door, having turned off any radio, TV, or other noise based element. Animals that may cause disruption by being startled by the sprinkling water should be placed out of the way. On a small table before icons, a small bowl full of newly blessed water is placed. Together with a list of names of those who reside in the home, a lighted candle is also placed on the table. These items are arranged prior to the arrival of the priest. At the beginning of the service for the blessing of the home, a family member leads the priest throughout the home, carrying the lighted candle. The rest of the household follows and then returns to the table for the final prayer and blessing with water upon those present. Remember that participation is very important.

Questions about Holy Water

Q. When should I drink Holy Water?

A. When you feel a spiritual need, that is when you find yourself strongly tempted; feel in an evil way; are about to set out on a journey; will miss the Divine Services; before a difficult encounter; in illness, afflictions, etc.. It is the custom of some pious people to take a drink of holy water the first thing every day before they eat or drink anything else (except on days when they receive Holy Communion).

Q. Where should I keep the Holy Water?

A. Some keep the holy water in their icon corner and others in the refrigerator.

Q. Does Holy Water have magical powers?

A. No. But it is matter that is "spirit-bearing" which brings the blessing of God, cleansing, healing, and can be used for every purpose that is expedient.

About the Baptism of Saint John

Saint John the Baptist plays one of the most important roles in the history of salvation. He was a man of great fame for his asceticism, spiritual purity, and preaching and this is witnessed by the fact that "Jerusalem and all Judea went out to him, and all the region round about Jordan." (Matthew 3:5) But he is known primarily for his role as Forerunner and Baptist of the Lord.

As Forerunner, he:

- comes in the spirit of Elijah.
- preaches repentance for the coming Messiah
- calls for the bearing of fruit warning that those who do not bear fruit will be "cut down and cast into the fire"
- fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah by serving as "the voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight" (Is 40:3)
- fulfills the prophecy of Malachi, "Behold, I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee" (Mal 3:1)

As Baptist, he:

- baptizes for the remission of sins (literally "to let go" of sins – Mk 1:4)
- points to one greater than he, Who will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire
- after first hesitating, he baptizes the Lord, in order to "full all righteousness"

The ax is laid to the root of the trees" The ax means the judgment of Christ, and the trees stand for each one of us.

When asked who he was, St. John very clearly explained that he was not the Christ, but that the One was coming, "whose sandal strap he was not worthy to stoop down and loosen" for the Christ would baptize not with water, but with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

"Comes in the spirit of Elijah", in Matthew 11:14, the Lord says that St. John is this Elijah who was to come. Even in appearance St. John looked like the prophet Elijah, as "John had his clothing of camel's hair and leather girdle about his loins" (Matthew 3:4) and Elijah "was a hairy man who wore a leather belt around his loins." (2 Kings 1:8).
